

Uganda Advanced Certificate of Education

(Christian Approaches to Social and Ethical Issues)

Paper 4

LOCK DOWN REVISION QUESTIONS

SECTION I:

SEX MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LIFE

- 1 a) Explain the different steps which were undertaken by Africans in the African Traditional society to uphold a strict sexual code. (12 Marks)
b) Account for the Church's insistence that the act of sex is sacred. (13 Marks)
- 2 a) Prostitution is a very dangerous vice to our society. Justify this statement from a Christian point of view. (13 Marks)
b) How has the church today tried to deal with the vice of prostitution?
- 3 a) Account for the marriage instabilities in our society today. (12 Marks)
b) Discuss the biblical principles that can help to stabilize marriages today. (13 Marks)
- 4 It is absolutely wrong for parents to deliberately control the number of children they can produce. As a Christian, discuss the validity of this statement. (25 Marks)

SECTION II: WORK, LEISURE AND MONEY

- 5 a) How was the competition for work controlled in the in the African Traditional Society. (12 Marks)
b) Examine the Christian principles about work. (13 Marks)
- 6 Industrial action cannot help to solve the problems of the disgruntled workers. As a Christian, asses the validity of this statement. (25 Marks)
- 7 a) Why is the consumption of alcoholic drinks persistent in spite of the numerous warning from the medical personnel? (12 Marks)
b) Discuss the position of the Church on the consumption of alcoholic drinks (13 Marks)
- 8 a) Asses the dangers of wealth in the world today. (12 Marks)
b) Examine the different ways a Christian can acquire and use his wealth from a Biblical point of view.

(13 Marks)

SECTION III: LAW AND ORDER

- 9 Politics and religion are mutually inclusive. Discuss this statement from a Christian point of view. (25 Marks)
- 10 a) Examine the duties that were expected of citizens in the African Traditional society. (12 Marks)
- b) Should Christians today pay taxes to oppressive regimes? Give reason for your answer. (13 Marks)
- 11 A death penalty is by no means a form of justice. Examine this statement from a Christian point of view. (25 Marks)
- 12 a) Discuss the causes of war in our society today. (12 Marks)
- b) As a Christian, what advise can you give to countries that are on the verge of war? (13 Marks)

End